REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL

Georgia, Houston County - As participants in the Child and Adult Care Food Program, the Middle Georgia Community Action Agency Head Start Program is accepting Requests for Proposals from vendors that provide bulk food items. All proposals must conform to Federal Register 7 CFR Part 226. The Nutrition Division of Bright from the Start administers the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) in Georgia.

Our Head Start program opens in August 2022 and closes in May 2023. 160 days for Head Start and 180 days for Pre-K. Each location is open Monday through Friday 7:30 am to 2:30 pm. All children enrolled receive meals and snacks free of charge. We serve breakfast, lunch, and snacks to 935 children in 15 counties. Delivery must be made to center site locations. A proposal package including a list of food, supplies, and the location of center sites will be provided upon request.

Interested vendors should contact Alma Clay in writing at Middle Georgia Community Action Agency, Inc.; 121 Prince Street, Warner Robins, Georgia, 31093 or via email at aclay@mgcaa.org to request a proposal package beginning Thursday June 9, 2022 at 8 am. Proposals must be submitted and received no later than June 29, 2022 at 12 pm. The contract period is July 14, 2022 -July 13, 2023.
